

Problem Gambling Services

If gambling is causing stress at home, work, school, or financially, help is available.

Support is free, confidential, and accessible

Signs it may be time to reach out

- Thinking about gambling most of the time
- Trying to win back money after losses
- Hiding gambling from family or friends
- Borrowing money or missing bills because of gambling
- Feeling anxious, guilty, or unable to stop

Catholic Charities Counseling and Adoption Services

The only provider listed on the Council of Compulsive Gambling of Pennsylvania's website.

Our Gambling Certified Counselors are committed to providing specialized care for those struggling with gambling addiction, which is sometimes linked with other life challenges.

We are fortunate to have a grant from the State of Pennsylvania to provide services that ensure those without insurance do not face financial barriers to accessing care.

Call 814.480.0087 for more information or to schedule an appointment, or visit our website www.cccas.org